DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Boyd et al.

The patent application publication to Boyd et al. discloses a method of electronically conducting play of a poker game in a computer-network environment. Figs. 8-10, illustrate a computer display screen showing the entire poker table with the players seated at their table. Figs. 12-14, 18-20, 23, 27 and 28 illustrate the display screen showing the values of the dealt cards to all the players and the progress of the poker game. Thus, the computer-network and display screen monitor the play of the poker game. The passing of play to a player is sensed by a computer interface (buttons), see paragraph [0129] and [0130]. A time limit, 20 seconds, is imposed on each player currently taking action. This time limit is indicated by a running timer or clock appearing on the display screen over the player's head. If the player does not act within the 20 seconds, then a default action is taken and the player's hand is folded (hand is dead), paragraph [0131] and [0138].
